Arrest Made for Construction Site Burglary

An adult male has been arrested in connection with 2 Colonial Heights cases involving burglary and theft from a local construction site. On March 14, 2018, Colonial Heights officers responded to the Southside Regional Hospital construction site located on East Roslyn Court. Contractors reported that sometime during the night, an unknown person(s) broke into the construction trailers and removed copper pipe and construction tools. On March 19th, at 1:00am, a patrol officer was checking the construction site and noticed an unoccupied vehicle with the trunk open. The officer discovered copper tubing and burglary tools inside the open trunk. While on foot searching for the driver, the officer saw a subject run from the site and after a brief foot pursuit, a male suspect was taken into custody.

Bryan Mark Beachem has been served with 8 felony warrants: 3 for Grand Larceny, 2 for Burglary, 2 for Larceny with Intent to Sell, and 1 for Possession of Burglary Tools. He was also charged with 2 misdemeanors for petit larceny. Additionally, Beachem was wanted by 3 other jurisdictions, Chesterfield, Dinwiddie, and Richmond for failure to appear. Beachem is being held without bond at Riverside Regional Jail pending his next court date on May 16, 2018, in Colonial Heights General District Court.
