Colonial Heights Police Make Arrests in String of Commercial Burglaries

The Colonial Heights Police Department has arrested seven people in connection with a series of burglaries to businesses around the Southpark Mall area. Hot Spot Electronics, located at 790-B Southpark Boulevard, was broken into on 4/16/16 and 5/16/16. Several thousand dollars of electronic equipment was stolen. Sneaker P, located at 1839 Southpark Boulevard, was also broken into on 4/19/16 and 5/7/16, when several thousand dollars in collectible shoes were stolen. Detectives were able to identify the subjects responsible for all four incidents and were able to recover a portion of the property that was stolen. In total, four adults and three juveniles have been charged with multiple felonies in connection with these crimes. All suspects were committed to Riverside Regional Jail with no bond.
