Colonial Heights Police Investigate Fatality

On August 8th, 2016 at 8:59 p.m. the Colonial Heights Police Department responded to the 500 block of Walnut Avenue for the report of an injured person. When officers arrived they found Timothy Randolph Williams, 28 yoa of Colonial Heights, injured in the roadway. Williams was transported by EMS to VCU Medical Center where he later died.

A preliminary investigation revealed that Williams was injured by an unoccupied, runaway vehicle. The Colonial Heights Major Accident Investigation Team and Detectives responded to the scene and initiated an investigation, which remains ongoing.
