

COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE

R. Daniel Bowles

Mr. Bowles graduated from Averett University (Danville, VA) with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration in 2002.

Prior to being elected as the Colonial Heights Commissioner of the Revenue, Mr. Bowles worked in the banking industry for over 23 years. From 2019-2021, he served as the President of the Colonial Heights Chamber of Commerce (now SOVA Chamber).

Mr. Bowles is an avid sports fan. He enjoys following the Denver Broncos and Richmond Spiders basketball and football, and spending time at Shepherd Stadium watching the Tri-City Chili Peppers.

Mr. Bowles and his wife Jessica have two children, one of which has graduated from Colonial Heights Public Schools.
